HISTORY, TRANQUILITY AND ADVENTURE

Morretes, Antonina and Guaraqueçaba are historical cities with rich colonial architecture. They are quiet cities, but with rivers and bays suitable for rafting, canoeing, tours and lots of adventure!

ISLAND-SHAPED PARADISE

One of the most beautiful tourist attractions in Paraná, Ilha do Mel enchants those who know it and stands out as one of the main ecotourism destinations in Brazil.

HONEY ISLAND

DOLPHINS BAY

DOLPHINS BAY

One of the most popular tours among tourists is through Dolphins Bay, between the islands of Mel and Peças. An Eden that houses a comfortable mating point, growth and life for dolphins.

A QUIET PLACE TO REST

Ilha das Peças is a natural quiet place that belongs to the municipality of Paranaguá and is part of the Superagui National Park. It is the ideal place for those who want to rest and have moments of peace and quiet.

CRAB

The coast of Paraná is one of the regions with the richest traditional cuisine in Brazil. In addition to fresh seafood, there is barreado, a typical dish of the state, roasted mullet, the famous Paraná oysters and Cambira (smoked fish). Don't forget to try the famous Morretes liquor (cachaça) and the traditional Antonina banana candy.

PARANAGUÁ

WHERE IT ALL BEGAN

Mother City of the state, Paranaguá was founded in 1648 and houses countless mansions, churches and museums that are a true dive into the history of Paraná.

UNFORGETTABLE TRAIN TOURS

From the capital Curitiba, it is possible to access the coast by highways or by the Serra Verde Express Train, which runs along a century-old railway through Serra do Mar, considered one of the most beautiful train rides in the world. And between Morretes and Antonina, the Caiçara Train provides enchanting moments in the oldest Train type "Maria Fumaça" in operation in Brazil.
